"Happy Heroes"

PTA INFO: Sometimes there is confusion about what the PTA sponsors and what the school sponsors. The PTA sponsors the following activities at the school (everything else is run by the school):

The PTA sponsors the following at the school:

The Fall Carnival in September was a fun night for our school. Our PTA goal for this year was to break even money-wise and provide a fun night for the community. Custom Events provides the bounce houses and collects and manages the money collected for those. PTA provides the free carnival games and prizes and arranges for the food. With the money brought in from the food, the PTA was able to cover these costs and come out $7 ahead. We are very happy with this outcome!

SEP Dinner for Teachers (Budget $400): We provide dinner to the teachers and staff that stay late. You can sign up to buy something to bring in!

Teacher Appreciation Week ($400): We want to show our teachers how much we value them by giving them lunch every day during this week.

T-shirts: The PTA sells Falcon T-shirts for the kids to wear the last Friday of the month.

Birthday Table ($150): The birthday table is set up once a month. All birthdays during that month get to have their picture taken & parents can download them from the website.

Huntsman's Heroes ($25): Each month, Students of the Month are chosen from each class. The budget pays for the printing.

Falcon Friday ($25): Kids can wear their school shirts or the color black to school on the last Friday of the month. The class with the most "school spirit" gets glow sticks that day.

Military Week: Lunches are provided for veterans who come and eat with the kids that day.

Hero Week ($25): Different themes for each day (has also been called Red Ribbon Week).

Dr. Seuss Day ($325): Donuts are provided before school for anyone who comes in to read books in the cafeteria.

Book Fair: The PTA runs the book fair with many parent volunteers. Scholastic rewards us with "Scholastic Bucks" which we give to the school to buy books.

Reflections ($225): This is a national contest we are able to be a part of because we are a PTA. There is a fee for the entries and awards that is covered by PTA funds.
